

Westerner Radicalization: Rethinking the Psychology of Terrorism

Presented by Vern Pierson

1. Introduction
 - a. History
 - i. Background/details
2. Problem Statement
 - a. Literature Review
 - i. The Study of Criminology and Violent Deviance
 - ii. The Bottom-Up Approach: Focus on the Individual
 - iii. The Top-Down Approach: Relative Deprivation and Situationism
 - iv. Social Identity Theory
 - b. Recapping
 - i. Main takeaways
3. The Quest for Significance, The Hero Complex, and Narcissism
 - a. Quest for Significance
 - i. Explanation
 - b. Hero Complex
 - i. What constitutes a Hero Complex?
 - c. Narcissism
 - i. Traits
 - d. Dark Triad
 - i. Combined results
4. Arson by Firefighter and the Hero Complex
 - a. Arsonist Profile
 - i. Details
 - b. Arsonist Firefighters
 - i. Individuals
 - c. Complexity
 - i. Much-Maligned Profile
 - d. Fire Investigator John Orr
 - i. Case Study
5. The Rise of ISIS and Recruitment of Vulnerable Westerners
 - a. The rise of the Islamic State
 - i. Efforts to recruit or inspire
 - b. Isis Recruitment
 - i. Inspiration and radicalization
 - c. Isis Profile
 - i. Recruitment details
 - ii. Inspiration profile
 - d. The Narrative of Isis
 - i. Media
6. Conclusion
 - a. Discussion
 - i. Questions