

GENERAL OFFICE MEMORANDUM 17-144

TO: ALL DEPUTY DISTRICT ATTORNEYS

FROM: JOHN K. SPILLANE
Chief Deputy District Attorney

SUBJECT: VIP CORE TRAINING: DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
DECEMBER 15, 2017

DATE: NOVEMBER 22, 2017

The Training Division is pleased to announce a one-day VIP Core Training in Domestic Violence to be held on December 15, 2017. The training will be from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. (registration begins at 8:00 a.m.). It will be held at:

Los Angeles Fire Department Training Facility
1700 Stadium Way Room 217
Los Angeles, CA 90012

There is plenty of free parking on site.

The training will be presented by the VIP Core Domestic Violence Training Team and will cover a variety of topics including:

- Filing a Domestic Violence Case
- Dealing with an Uncooperative Victim
- Trial Issues in Domestic Violence Cases
- Evidentiary Issues in Domestic Violence Cases
- Office Policy on Domestic Violence

VIP Core Training is conducted periodically throughout the year. All deputies who handle domestic violence cases are required to complete this training. Deputies with an interest in handling these challenging, yet rewarding cases should attend this training. To register, please email Rosie Aldaz in the Training Division by December 12, 2017. Deputies must receive approval from their supervisors to attend the training and deputies must complete a Travel Training Request in advance for approval to attend the training.

sp