Positive Contacts with Law Enforcement

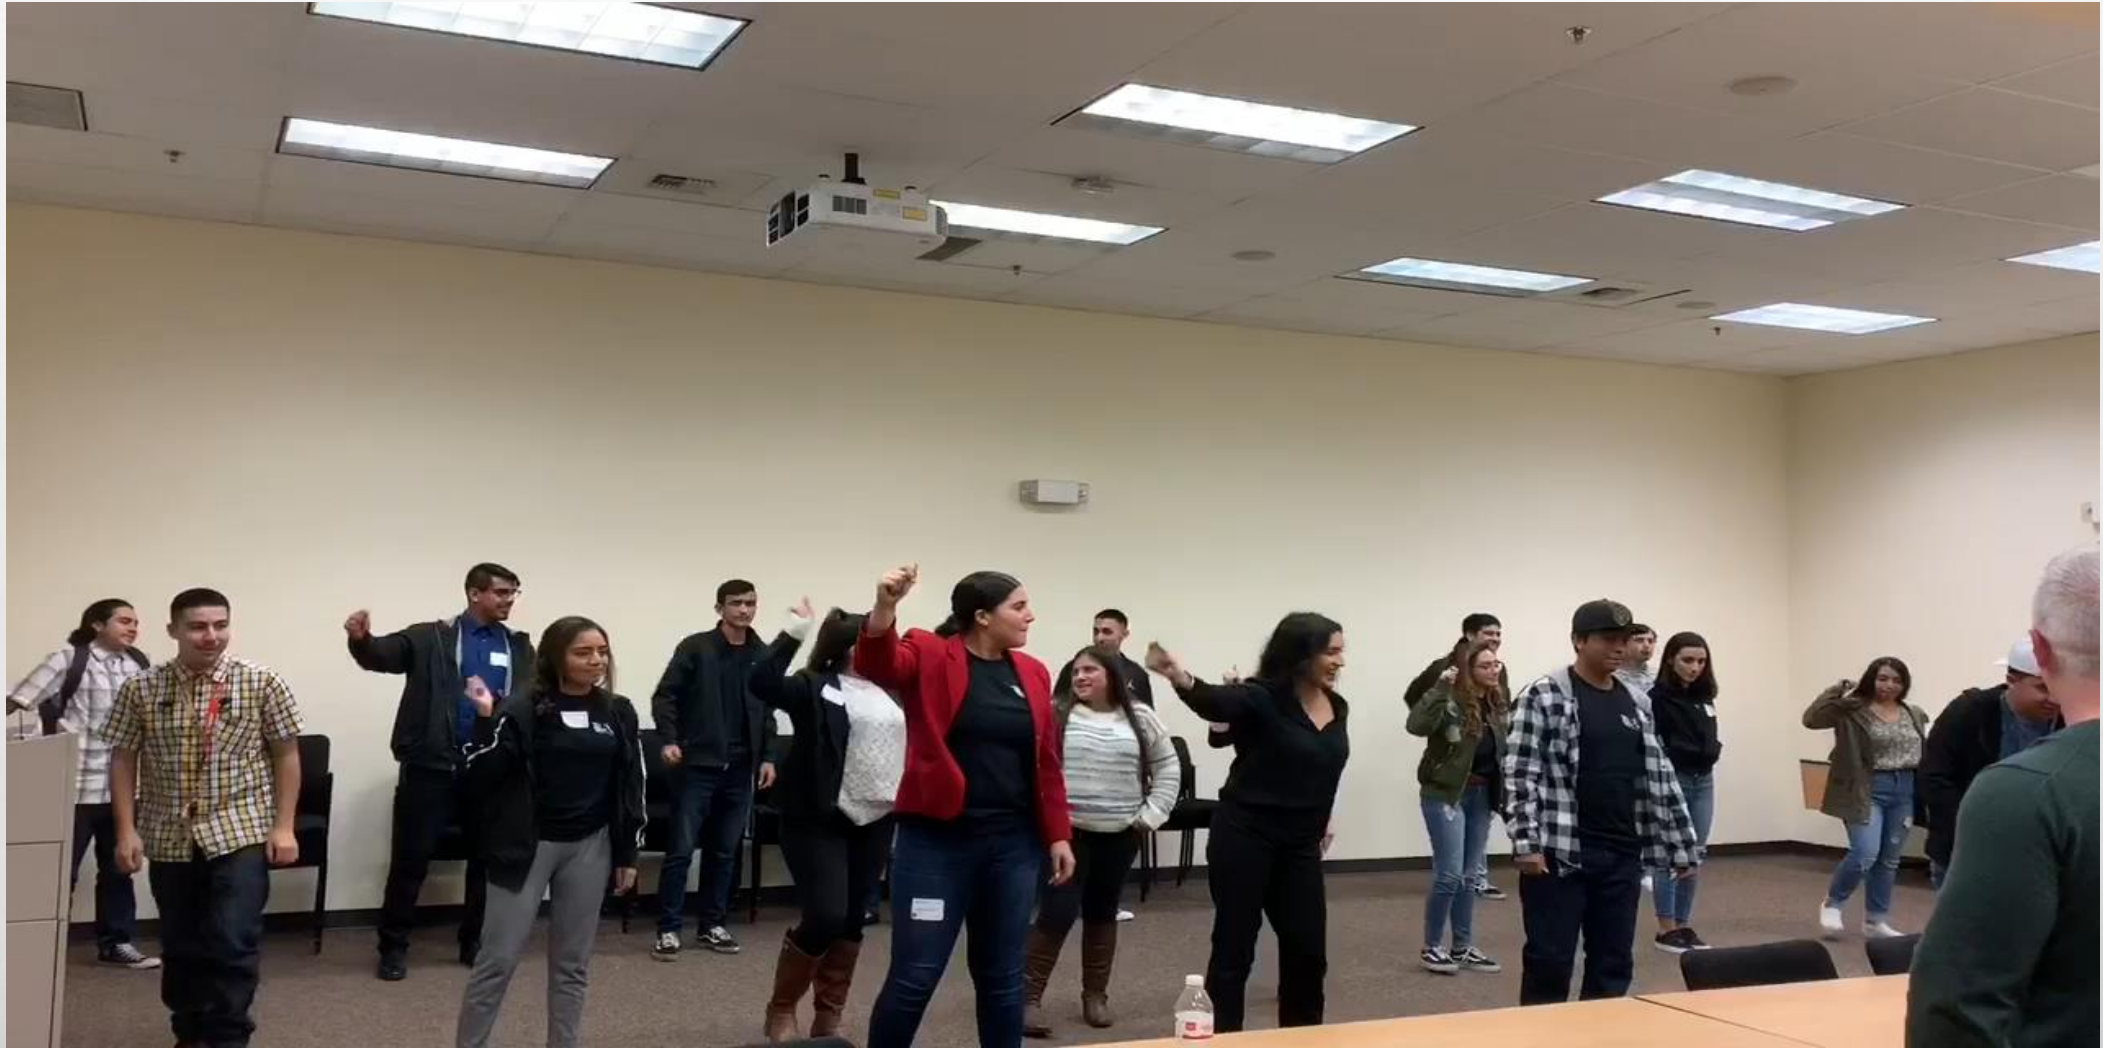

Building Empathy through Victim's Experiences

SHOP WITH A COP (AND A DA) IN PARTNERSHIP WITH WSPD DECEMBER 15, 2018

- BUILDING TRUST WITH LAW ENFORCEMENT

Walmart Grant - $6,000
30 children matched up with members of
WSPD and YCDA
$200 Shopping spree per student

Children are hand selected either by WSPD, Washington Unified School District or YCDA as individuals who need this connection and cheer.

“One of the most rewarding experiences in my law enforcement career.” - YCDA Investigator

“I used to be scared of the police, now I want to be one.” – 9 year old participant

“Heartbreaking yet, rewarding.” – YCDA Investigator

“I thought all law enforcement officers were mean, but, you are nice.” – 11 year old participant

YCDA Victim Advocates identified children traumatized by crime and the following processes in search of justice.

Children who have witnessed Domestic Violence.

Children who were victims of sexual assault.

Children who have had to testify against a parent.

We can never undue the darkness they felt, but, we can provide them with some sunshine. We do not just stand behind them in court, we stand behind them in the opportunity to be children.

On this day, there is no crime, nothing lurking in the dark. On this day they can be children.

We are not just here for court, we are here for life.

The impact we make outside of the courtroom is just as powerful as the one we make inside.
