

Sara Harbarger earned her law degree from the McGeorge School of Law in 2013. She began her career as a Deputy District Attorney in Glenn County, prosecuting misdemeanor and felony cases before joining the California Victim Compensation Board (CalVCB). At CalVCB, she presides over victim appellate hearings for those denied benefits and helps ensure restitution orders are imposed for CalVCB across the state.