

Clark Guest has a Master's degree in Clinical Psychology and is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT), a Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor (LPCC) and a Licensed Advanced Drug and Alcohol Counselor (LAADC). He has been working in the substance use disorder field for over 17 years. He has predominately worked in the field providing services for the criminal justice population while developing and implementing a variety of programs. He has provided treatment for all levels of care within the system and helped to implement a standard of care while still having a level of accountability to continue to help keep our community safe. He is currently the Behavioral Health Program Supervisor for the San Luis Obispo clinic as well as the Criminal Justice Treatment Coordinator.

Amy Carlisle has a Master of Science in Psychology from Cal Poly and is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT). She is an Assessment Coordinator at San Luis Obispo Drug and Alcohol Services. Amy has worked in addiction treatment for 6 years in all outpatient levels of care. She also specializes in grief counseling.