CALIFORNIA DISTRICT ATTORNEYS ASSOCIATION

Welcome to the Jury Selection, Examination, and Impeachment Seminar at McGeorge School of Law (Mock Courtroom)

On behalf of the California District Attorneys Association, welcome to the Jury Selection, Examination, and Impeachment Seminar.

CDAA awards Minimum Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) for prosecutors under the auspices of the California District Attorneys Association, which is designated as an authorized provider of continuing education for prosecutors in the State of California. Strict adherence to attendee hours and participation is applied. Should you have any questions regarding this information please contact Regan Steele, Training Consultant.

- Turn off (or turn to "vibrate") your cell phones and pagers while the seminar is in session.
- All attorneys: You must provide CDAA with your State Bar number. If your bar number is not printed on the sign-in roster or if your number is incorrect, please add/correct it. If you attend the entire seminar, you will receive MCLE credit. Schedule and credits are subject to agenda changes.
- You are required to sign in each day to receive MCLE credit. Should you arrive late, leave earlier than the course schedule, or miss time during the day, please note the time on your designated sign-in space. Be aware that signing in indicates you attend the full day; the California State Bar does audit our courses.
- CDAA relies heavily on attendee feedback. Please complete the seminar evaluation!
- Help keep the program running on schedule. Please make sure to return from breaks and lunches on time.
- You will receive an electronic Certificate of Attendance approximately two weeks after the seminar.
- CDAA purchases only enough food/beverages for registered attendees. Because of grant restrictions, CDAA is unable to purchase food/beverages in addition to those provided each day.
- Because meeting room temperatures are sometimes unpredictable, we strongly suggest you bring a sweater or light jacket each day.
- The meeting room will remain unlocked during lunch hours and after hours. You should not leave personal items of value in the meeting room as CDAA is not responsible for them. You may leave your training materials overnight and at lunch.
- There is no talking during the voir dire process and mock trial. Please respect this policy, or you will be asked to leave.
- If you have any questions or concerns, please see me.

Thank you and enjoy the seminar!

Case Summary

On 12/1/2018 at 2347 hours (11:47 p.m.), Officer Polhemus arrived at 2735 A Street in response to a 911 call that occurred at 2332 hours (11:32 p.m.). Upon arrival, Officer Polhemus made contact with Complaining Witness Victoria Valdez. Valdez was on the front porch of the residence at the time of the officer's arrival. Valdez appeared reluctant to speak with the officer and repeatedly inquired as to her safety, asking, "he can't hurt me now?" and "I can't take it anymore." Officer Polhemus noted that Valdez appeared as if she had been crying. Her clothing appeared disheveled and she had a red mark on her right check. Valdez complained of pain to her head and her back.

When Officer Polhemus asked Valdez what happened, she immediately stated, "he raped me." When Officer Polhemus asked who she was referring to, she stated, "David." When asked where David was now, Valdez stated he was in the house passed out in the bedroom. Officer Polhemus immediately went into the house and found a sole male occupant in the back bedroom. The male was either passed out or sleeping in the bed. The male was wearing a pair of jeans which were unbuttoned, unzipped, and pulled down slightly showing his underwear, which were twisted. The male was taken into custody and placed in the rear of Officer Polhemus' vehicle.

After securing the suspect, Officer Polhemus obtained a statement from Valdez. In summary, Valdez stated the following (for details complainant's complete statement): She and the suspect David Delaney have been living together for the last 3 months, since approximately Sept. 1st, and have been dating since approximately June. A week ago, she found out she was pregnant. When she told Delaney, he initially acted pleased and within a couple of days became moody. Today, she arrived home after working late, around 1900 hours (7:00 p.m.), as she had to work an hour overtime at the restaurant - she normally arrives home at 1730 hours (5:30 p.m.). When she got home it was evident that Delaney had been drinking. He immediately accused her of seeing someone else and then questioned Valdez as to whether or not the child was his. This made Valdez mad and she responded that he was a "prick" and of course the child was his. Delaney slapped Valdez across the face. When Valdez fell to the floor, Delaney kicked her in the back. He then pulled Valdez by the hair into the bedroom and pushed her onto the bed. Delaney then pulled his pants half way down and then pulled her panties down. Delaney tried to put his penis in the complainant's vagina but he couldn't maintain an erection. He then put his finger in her vagina. Valdez repeatedly told him "no" and pushed his hand away. She doesn't recall how many times he put his finger in her vagina. Valdez staved on the bed until Delaney passed out and then she got up. grabbed her phone, and called her best friend, Monica Sela, and told her what happened. Monica convinced her to call the police. Valdez then called 911 and waited outside for the officer to arrive.

Officer Polhemus noticed the injury on her right cheek.

After obtaining Valdez's statement, Officer Polhemus questioned David Delaney and told him that Valdez said she was raped by Delaney. He spontaneously uttered, "how can you rape a bitch that's giving it away."

Valdez was transported by Officer Polhemus to the medical center for an examination of her facial injury and sexual assault examination by Nurse Nancy Newhall.

The case was submitted to the District Attorney's Office. The intake deputy filed the following charges: 289(c) (forcible penetration with a foreign object), 220 (assault with intent to commit rape), and 273.5 (spouse/cohabitant abuse).

Defendant Delaney is in custody unable to make bail.

Booked evidence:

- Tape of 911 call
- police report
- Complainant's damaged clothing (blouse with missing button)
- photos showing injuries to complainant
- photos of scene
- booking photo
- tape of jail call between defendant and complainant (call initiated by defendant) made on December 15th
- Cal OES 2-923 form from the SAFE examination
- Hospital discharge paperwork
- X-Ray Victoria Valdez

Witnesses:

For the prosecution:

- Victoria Valdez (now recanting statement she gave to Officer Polhemus she claims that she and the defendant argued, he was gesturing with his hands, and she was accidentally struck by him and she bruises easily – she accused him of rape to retaliate for accusing her of infidelity and questioning the parentage of the child she's carrying)
- Monica Sela (process servers have been unable to locate)
- Officer Ed Polhemus
- Nancy Newhall (nurse practitioner who conducted 923 examination)

For the defense:

- David Delaney
- Dr. Green (expert contacted by the defense to testify re the 923 exam)

CDAA Jury Selection Seminar June 10, 2019 Deputy District Attorney Christopher Puck Monterey County, Sex Assault Unit

Objectives of This Training

- Discuss basic principles/logistics of jury selection
- Demonstrate proper techniques
- Provide in-depth info on "For Cause" challenges
- Voir Dire objections (And how to avoid them)
- What if I only have 15 minutes...?
- Specific examples for addressing a few common issues
- Attached: Previous VD Outlines to serve as models

Why It Matters

- Need 12 to win, Takes 1 juror to lose
 - Only chance to weed out the weirdos/poison pills
 - Evidence irrelevant if VD is poorly done

Why It Matters

- Need 12 to win, Takes 1 juror to lose
 - Only chance to weed out the weirdos/poison pills
 - Evidence irrelevant if VD is poorly done
- Sets the tone for trial
 - First impressions critical
 - Expectations set at VD can lose your case
- First chance to "educate" jurors on key legal issues
- Only chance to gauge juror ability to follow tough legal principles

Goals of Voir Dire

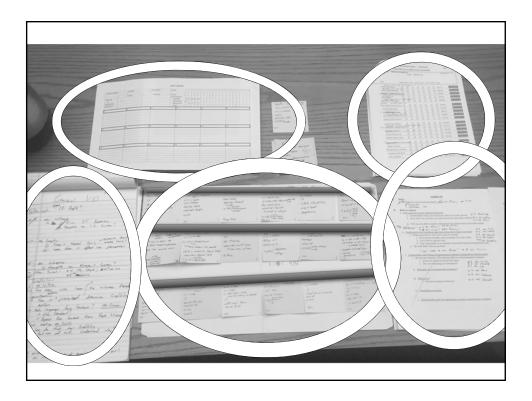

- Officially:
 - Weed out Nutjobs/Poison Pills! (Aka For Cause Challenges)
- Unofficial Secondary Goals:
 - Educate jurors on basic principles important to case
 - Desensitizing jurors to issues with your case
 - Connect with jurors to begin building your credibility/a rapport
- Common Misconception: Obtain Information to aid Peremptory Challenges
 - People v. Williams (1981) 29 Cal.3d 392 allowed it
 - But was overturned by CCP § 223

Voir Dire Basics

- Structure
 - Varies by Judge and Jurisdiction
 - Order of Questioning
 - Judge voir dire
 - Defense
 - \circ Prosecution (because we have the burden \rightarrow we get last word)
 - Court has discretion to put reasonable limits on time
 - © C.C.P. § 223
 - Defense must use For Cause challenges first CCP 226(d)
 - All challenges to an individual juror, except a peremptory challenge, shall be taken first by the Defendant, then by the People

Voir Dire Basics

- Structure
 - Number of Peremptory Challenges C.C.P. § 231
 - \odot Misdemeanors \rightarrow 6
 - \odot Felonies \rightarrow 10
 - Life/Capital Cases → 20
 - Peremptory Challenges start with People; go alternatively
 CCP 231(d)
 - Peremptory Challenges must be for genuine, reasonably specific, race(or protected group)-neutral reason related to your case
 - Hernandez v. New York (1991) 500 U.S. 352
- © Large deference to court's factual findings, but... rulings based solely on written response → De Novo Review!

Some Basic Techniques

- Shorthand Suggestions
 - [®] "Married → (job)"
 - Shows juror is married and the job is what their spouse does
 - "LE" for law enforcement connection
 - ⊗ E.g. L.E. → brother → BPD = he has a brother in Bakersfield P.D.
 - "Vic" → them or someone close was a victim of a crime
 - Usually list relation and the crime
 - \circ "∆" → Them or someone close was a defendant/accused
 - "Jury \rightarrow crim/civ \rightarrow Verd"
 - For prior jury experience, type of case, and where there was a verdict
 - If multiple prior juries, draw as many arrows as times they served

Soly-7 crim yverd -7 crim yverd Vic -7 498 LF - Revired-7 Fed- IRS - Married-7 Fed. - Married-7 Fed.

Some Basic Techniques

- Speak to Every Person, if Possible
- Use Names (if allowed by judge)
- Maintain eye contact
- Plan in advance which jurors will be asked to discuss particular topics
- Avoid Controversial / Political jokes
 - And don't make assumptions about your audience

Some Basic Techniques

- Cold Call the Quiet Ones
- Don't waste important questions on obviously reliable jurors!
- Build Consensus
 - Make it easy for jurors to agree
 - Ex. Following the law when you disagree or think it's a stupid law
- Isolate Nutjobs / Damaging Opinions
 - Get your reliable jurors to voice disagreement with the extreme opinions
 - Ex. "I think felons should be allowed to possess firearms"

Some Basic Techniques

- Avoid Objectionable Questions
 - Stay away from or minimize time in legal grey areas
 - Avoid discussing the definition of "Reasonable Doubt"
- Use open-ended questions
 - "Do you agree or disagree? Why?"
 - "How do you think your __ might affect you as a juror?
 - "Are you allowed to consider __? Should you? Why or why not?
- Stay away from wordy/abstract hypotheticals
- Avoid hypos that ask jurors to prejudge reliability
 - This is different from asking jurors to keep an open mind
 - Exception: rebutting defense questions on officers credibility

- Three general ways a juror can be disqualified
 - General disqualification CCP § 225(b)(1)(A) & CCP § 228
 - Actual Bias CCP § 225(b)(1)(C)
 - Implied Bias CCP § 229
- Highly academic/technical, but important nonetheless
 - Most attorneys/judges aren't aware of these specific statutory grounds and usually won't/can't articulate them
 - The better the record you make; the safer your conviction is on appeal

- General disqualification CCP § 228
 - (a) "A want of any of the qualifications prescribed by this code to render a person competent as a juror"
 - (b) "The existence of any incapacity which satisfies the court that the challenged person is incapable of performing the duties of a juror in the particular action without prejudice to the substantial rights of the challenging party."

- General disqualification CCP § 228
 - Option A are they a want of qualifications
 - Qualifications CCP § 203(a) lists 8 possible disqualifications:
 - 1) Non-citizens
 - 2) Anyone under the age of 18
 - 3) People who are not domiciled in CA
 - 4) Non residents of the county
 - 5) Felons who have not had their civil rights restored
 - 6) Non-English speakers
 - 7) People already serving as Grand jurors / trial jurors
 - 8) People who are the subject of a conservatorship

- General disqualification CCP § 228
 - Option B Incapacity impairing juror's ability to perform duties
 - This an open-ended catch all
 - No Statutory list, but generally a juror's duties include:
 - Perceiving and considering evidence;
 - Determining witness credibility by a uniform standard;
 - Following a judge's instructions throughout the trial;
 - Putting aside outside considerations / preconceived notions;
 - Deliberating with other jurors;
 - ® Rendering a lawful verdict if People meet their burden.
 - Anything that prevents a juror from doing these with impartiality is a proper for-cause general disqualification

- General disqualification CCP § 228
 - Option B Incapacity impairing juror's ability to perform duties
 - Examples of common sources of incapacity:
 - Inability to comprehend English language
 - People v. Elam (2001) 91 Cal. App. 4th 298, 316
 - Bias against legal system
 - @ People v. Thompson (2010) 49 Cal.4th 79, 100-101
 - Active refusal to follow certain laws (applicable to your case)
 - People v. Williams (2001) 25 Cal.4th 441, 448
 - @ People v. Collins (1976) 17 Cal. 3d 687, 690
 - @ People v. Daniels (1991) 52 Cal. 3d 815, 865
 - Prejudging officer/witness credibility (aka police bias)
 - People v. Thomas (1990) 218 Cal.App.3d 1477, 1484

- General disqualification CCP § 228
 - Option B Incapacity impairing juror's ability to perform duties
 - Examples of common sources of incapacity:
 - Inability/Refusal to Deliberate
 - People v. Lomax (2010) 49 Cal.4th 530, 589
 - Whether due to jury nullification or youthful "anxiety"
 - Inability to disregard outside information
 - In re Malone (1996) 12 Cal.4th 935, 963
 - Medical/Mental Health/Personal issues interfering with perception of evidence
 - Medical conditions causing constant pain
 - Young adults with social anxiety
 - Family/work even that would distract juror throughout trial

- Implied Bias CCP 229
 - Lists 8 exclusive statutory grounds for an implied bias challenge
 - Some deal with a juror having prior connection to the case
 - E.g. Consanguinity with Defendant or witness
 - E.g. Financial interest in the result of case (not as taxpayer)
 - Relevant/possibly applicable subsections:
 - (e) "having an unqualified opinion or belief on merits" of the case based on outside materials or knowledge of material facts
 - (f) "The existence of a state of mind in the juror evincing enmity against, or bias towards, either party."
 - (h) Capital cases only juror has such strong views on capital punishment they would never be able to vote guilty

Actual Bias - CCP 225(b)(1)(C)

- * "the existence of a state of mind on the part of the juror in reference to the case, or to any of the parties, which will prevent the juror from acting with entire impartiality, and without prejudice to the substantial rights of any party."
- Includes bias against:
 - Defendants;
 - Officers;
 - Women;
 - Law enforcement;
 - Expert witnesses; etc...
- ⋄ Like 2nd portion of General Disqual. \rightarrow this is a catch-all option
 - Any articulable bias against your interest qualifies

- A Good Overall Standard to Use:
 - Would the juror's issue/preconceived notion/distraction/anxiety/bias etc... "'prevent or substantially impair' the performance of the juror's duties in accordance with the court's instructions and the juror's oath?"
 - © People v. McDermott (2002) 28 Cal.4th 946, 981
 - People v. Earp (1999) 20 Cal.4th 826, 853
 - People v. Merced (2001) 94 Cal. App. 4th 1024,
- It's a D.P. qualification standard that is consistent with and accurately summarizes spirit of For Cause challenges
- An easy standard that encapsulates actual bias and general disqualification challenges

- Setting up For-Cause Challenges
 - Key is to expose juror's desire or potential to nullify a verdict
 - Specific phrasing required to show an inability to follow law
 - Question must be structured so that wrong answer means PER SE violation of law
 - "Assume I've proven the case B.R.D...."
 - "Assume you believe the witness B.R.D...."
 - "Do you think that you are allowed to consider ...?
 - If _____ happened, would you automatically, regardless of the other evidence, do _____?
 - # Hypos/questions must not contain logical loopholes
 - If you believe the victim, how will you vote?
 - What if the victim has a conviction, will that affect your vote?
 - What if there's no direct evidence, would you still vote guilty?

- Setting up For-Cause Challenges
 - Use Hyperbolic Hypotheticals to Test Jurors' Resolve
 - Makes it easier to expose possible impairment
 - E.g. What if the victim was a child molester?
 - E.g. What if the defendant had Stage 4 cancer?
 - E.g. What if he only stole a candy bar from Bill Gates?
 - E.g. what if his BAC was .07999999? NG, right? What about .080000000?

- Setting up For-Cause Challenges
 - Use concrete hypotheticals to highlight juror Bias
 - Law enforcement Bias
 - "If officer said one thing, and a civilian said something else, would you automatically be inclined to believe the civilian because of your views/your prior experience?
 - "I need more than one witness"
 - E.G. Battery in front of 60 witnesses

- Setting up For-Cause Challenges
 - Exploit Other Factors That May Hurt Your Case
 - Lack of Maturity/Confidence (College students)
 - Many young jurors can't think concretely enough about your case/burden of proof
 - If you see one that is sheepish/nervous/can't talk coherently:
 - Ask if they feel comfortable deciding this "important" case?
 - Would he/she be able to focus on evidence and deliberate?
 - Are they able to understand everything that is being said?
 - Encourage him/her to express his/her lack of confidence/comfort with the juror role
 - Let them know it is common for people their age
 - And thank them for being honest

- Setting up For-Cause Challenges
 - Exploit Other Factors That May Hurt Your Case
 - Outside Stressful/Distracting Event
 - Many jurors might have stressful work event or family life drama that will consume their attention away from the trial
 - Ex "If you are picked as a juror, will you be able to sit and listen to the evidence/witnesses, and focus on this trial, or do you think you may be distracted by _____?"
 - Ex "Is it going to be too difficult for you to put aside ____?"
 - This is an incapacity that would prevent them from fulfilling their duties
 - Use sparingly to maintain credibility with judge.

- Setting up For-Cause Challenges
 - Once Bias is Exposed, you MUST show it will impair juror
 - Having a bias, strong opinion or incapacity is a necessary condition, but it is not a sufficient one for a "for cause" challenge
 - The inability to put aside that bias/incapacity in accordance with a judge's instructions and act impartially is what disqualifies the juror
 - Therefore, to make a legally valid challenge, your questions must establish:
 - The Juror has a bias, incapacity, strong belief, etc..., affecting his ability to follow a specific law or act impartial, etc..; AND
 - 2. The Juror will not or cannot put aside that bias/incapacity/opinion even after the judge instructs him he has to.

- Setting up For-Cause Challenges
 - Once Bias is Exposed, you MUST show it will impair juror
 - Examples
 - "So, are you saying that if the judge instructs you that you can't consider _____, are you saying you won't be able to set aside your feelings?"
 - "Even if the judge instructs you that you have to judge all witnesses by the same standard, are you saying that you won't be able to treat the officers the same based on what happened to your brother?"
 - "If the judge instructs you that you have to put _____ aside and can't let it affect how you view the evidence, do you think you'd have difficulty following that instruction?"

- Setting up For-Cause Challenges
 - Once Bias is Exposed, you MUST show it will impair juror
 - "I think I can follow the law"
 - Respond with concern over "I think I can..." and provide examples
 - Pilot landing airplane → "I think I can land this plane"
 - Babysitter → "I think I can keep your kids alive tonight"
 - Goal is to get them to state their position more unequivocally

- Setting up For-Cause Challenges
 - Make Them Comfortable with Stating Opinions/Inability to Follow Law
 - Use positive, encouraging tone
 - "There are no wrong answers if they tell the truth"
 - But always maintain your pokerface when they say something crazy/unexpected! Don't look like this:

- Defending Against Challenges/Rehab'ing Good Jurors
 - Use concrete examples to test if they can be fair
 - Remind jurors they don't decide punishment, just guilt
 - Explain the difference between judge's role and juror's
 - "Do you understand, your job is just to decide if the evidence shows B.R.D. that he did it? You don't have to decide the punishment if he is in fact guilty."
 - Usually add the disclaimer that they can't consider punishment in any way, just to be safe
 - E.G. "No one likes drunk driving"
 - E.G. "No one likes theft"
 - B.G. "No one thinks violence is a good thing"

- Defending Against Challenges/Rehab'ing Good Jurors
 - Use concrete examples to test if they can be fair
 - Spell out what it means to be fair / unfair to test their resolve
 - "If you don't believe I've proven he's the driver, would you still find this man guilty just because...?"
 - "Can you listen to the evidence and make a decision as to whether you think I've proven that he's done it?"
 - Will you follow the law that the Judge gives you?"
 - Analogize to experiences in their lives where they do it already
 - See if juror has ever acted as a parent, manager, neutral arbiter in a friend dispute
 - Were they able to listen to both sides and make a decision?
 - We're asking them to do the same thing here."

- Defending Against Challenges/Rehab'ing Good Jurors
 - Use concrete examples to test if they can be fair
 - Distinguish this case from their own past experience
 - "Do you understand the Defendant has nothing to do what happened to your house?"
 - "Are you going to punish this person or treat him unfairly just because someone else broke into your house 10 years ago?"

Statutorily Enumerated Objections – CCP § 222.5(b)(3)

"For purposes of this section, an "improper question" is any question that, as its dominant purpose, attempts to precondition the prospective jurors to a particular result, indoctrinate the jury, or question the prospective jurors concerning the pleadings or the applicable law"

Case Law Summary of Possible Objections:

"…the examination of prospective jurors should not be used to educate the jury panel to the particular facts of the case, to compel the jurors to commit themselves to vote a particular way, to prejudice the jury for or against a particular party, to argue the case, to indoctrinate the jury, or to instruct the jury in matters of law." (People v. Abilez (2007) 41 Cal.4th 472, 492-493.)

VD Objections

Types of Objections

- Asking jury to prejudge the evidence
- Preconditioning/Indoctrinating the Jury
- Pre-instructing on the law unrelated to for cause challenge
- Argumentative
- Improper voir dire:
 - Unrelated to for cause challenges
 - Ingratiating himself/herself with the jury

Asking Jury to Prejudge the Evidence

- Most common error by young attorneys
- Conduct that falls within this objection:
 - Exposing facts to jury to see what they think about it
 - Giving jurors hypo involving same facts/charges as your case.
 - Often happens with hypos relating to self-defense or wit. credibility
 - Other Examples:
 - If my client has a valid excuse for violating the court order, will you vote NG?
 - If you hear evidence that my client ____, what do you think of that?
 - If my client had no injuries, could you still vote NG?

VD Objections

Asking Jury to Prejudge the Evidence

- Most common error by young attorneys
- Conduct that falls within this objection:
 - Exposing facts to jury to see what they think about it
 - Very Limited Exception to the rule: determining if a very inflammatory fact will inflame passions of jury.
 - People v. Williams (1981) 29 Cal.3d 392, 408-409 [Counsel may inquire of prospective jurors on "matters concerning which either the local community or the population at large is commonly known to harbor strong feelings"]
 - People v. Noguera (1992) 4 Cal.4th 599, 646 [not improper for prosecutor to ask jurors if they would keep an open mind to death despite defendant's young age]

Asking Jury to Prejudge the Evidence

- Most common error by young attorneys
- Conduct that falls within this objection:
 - Exposing facts to jury to see what they think about it
 - Very Limited Exception to the rule: determining if a very inflammatory fact will inflame passions of jury.
 - Inflammatory People v. Cash (2002) 28 Cal.4th 703, 721-722 [fact that defendant had killed both his grandparents as a teenager was so inflammatory that he should have been allowed voir dire to determine whether the fact that he committed murder previously (without revealing the victims were his grandparents) would influence the jurors to vote for death without regard to mitigation]

VD Objections

- Asking Jury to Prejudge the Evidence
 - Most common error by young attorneys
 - Conduct that falls within this objection:
 - Exposing facts to jury to see what they think about it
 - Very Limited Exception to the rule: determining if a very inflammatory fact will inflame passions of jury.
 - Inflammatory prior felony conviction People v. Chapman (1993) 15 Cal. App. 4th 136 [error to bar inquiry whether prospective jurors would be biased against defendant because he had previously been convicted of a felony]

Asking Jury to Prejudge the Evidence

- Most common error by young attorneys
- Conduct that falls within this objection:
 - Exposing facts to jury to see what they think about it
 - Very Limited Exception to the rule: determining if a very inflammatory fact will inflame passions of jury.
 - Not Sufficiently Inflammatory People v. Zambrano (2007) 41 Cal.4th 1082, 1122-1123 [that defendant dismembered the victim after killing him was not so inflammatory that it would cause such an invariable reaction on the part of jurors; voir dire was properly denied]
 - Not Sufficiently Inflammatory People v. Tate (2010) 49 Cal.4th 642, 658-660 [defendant had cut off murder victim's finger to steal her wedding rings; not proper voir dire]

VD Objections

Asking Jury to Prejudge the Evidence

- Most common error by young attorneys
- Conduct that falls within this objection:
 - Exposing facts to jury to see what they think about it
 - Very Limited Exception to the rule: determining if a very inflammatory fact will inflame passions of jury.
 - Proper Question: if you find out my client is a convicted felon, will you automatically disregard his testimony?
 - Improper: if you find out my client is a felon, will you disregard his testimony?

Asking Jury to Prejudge the Evidence

- Most common error by young attorneys
- Conduct that falls within this objection:
 - Hypotheticals meant to determine how juror will vote / judge credibility
 - Example: If you hear my client stabbed a person 17 times, would you be able to find he acted in self defense even if the other person had no defense wounds?
 - Example: How do you determine if someone acts in self-defense?
 - Example: How would you feel about hearing evidence like ____?
 - "Will you automatically disregard my client's mom's testimony?"
 - Any questions where its clear attorney is trying to see if juror will believe their theory of the case.

VD Objections

Preconditioning/Indoctrinating the Jury

- Second most common type of error
 - Testing juror receptivity to attorney's theory of the case;
 - Repetitious recitation of defense friendly legal principles;
 - Identifying juror experiences to similar to the defense perspective.

Generic examples:

- "Is it possible someone may falsely confess?"
 - Limited exception: Could an officer lie/be mistaken?
- Who here's been in a fight before? What was it like?" etc...
- "Who's had an ugly divorce?"
- "Who agrees that ex-wives have a motive to lie?"

Preconditioning/Indoctrinating the Jury

- Case Law Examples:
 - IMPROPER DEFENSE QUESTION:
 - "In the case at bench, defense counsel stated, 'It's clear a girlfriend has an interest to lie. I just want to make sure that the jurors don't automatically, before they hear her testimony, say she's lying because she's the girlfriend.'
 - The trial court barred this line of questioning on the ground that the defendant was trying to educate the jurors and induce them to prejudge the evidence. We cannot say that the court abused its discretion in doing so."
 - (People v. Helton (1984) 162 Cal.App.3d 1141, 1145.)

VD Objections

Preconditioning/Indoctrinating the Jury

- Case Law Examples:
 - IMPROPER DEFENSE CONDITIONING:
 - Def. Counsel asked whether any jurors could conceive of or had found themselves in a situation in which they had consented to have sex with someone without ever saying anything about actually wanting to have sex with them.
 - (PEOPLE v. HSU (July 24, 2003, A094582) ___Cal.App.4th___ [2003 Cal. App. Unpub. LEXIS 7116, at *43].)

Preconditioning/Indoctrinating the Jury

- Case Law Examples:
 - IMPROPER PROSECUTION PRECONDITIONING –
 - "if a woman is unconscious, that the fact that she drank alcohol somehow equals consent for sexual intercourse?" and "if a woman drinks alcohol and later on is with a man, that she deserves what she gets or is your thinking might be [sic] she was foolish to drink and she was with a man and she deserves what she gets" followed by the prosecutor then summarizing he will provide evidence defendant had sex with a woman while she was unconscious."
 - PEOPLE v. HSU (July 24, 2003, A094582) ___Cal.App.4th___[2003 Cal. App. Unpub. LEXIS 7116, at *43]

VD Objections

Preconditioning/Indoctrinating the Jury

- Case Law Examples:
 - IMPROPER PROSECUTION CONDITIONING "The prosecutor's comments, as a whole, appear to us to be an attempt to precondition the jurors to return a guilty verdict, and improperly referred to evidence outside the record, namely, the experiences of the prosecutor and of the victims' families in other cases on which the prosecutor had worked." (People v. Castillo (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 364, 386.)
 - Improper comments were:
 - References to prior jury verdicts of guilty
 - That he only does serious cases
 - How jurors have previously told him how they deliberate
 - Statements implying he only goes forward on guilty defendants; and believes this defendant is guilty

Preconditioning/Indoctrinating the Jury

- Case Law Examples:
 - IMPROPER DEFENSE QUESTION:
 - Defense attorney asking whether "it's possible for an eyewitness to a crime or some incident to mistakenly identify an innocent person as the person that committed that crime and say I am sure that is the person?"
 - (People v. Packard (Aug. 30, 2017, No. F070008) ___Cal.App.5th___ [2017 Cal. App. Unpub. LEXIS 5981, at] [found to be "obvious preconditioning".)

VD Objections

Preconditioning/Indoctrinating the Jury

- Case Law Examples:
 - IMPROPER PROSECUTION QUESTIONING:
 - Prosecutor improperly asked jurors what the best source of information of their own intent would be.
 - Then, "the prosecutor indicated that the question he "was trying to ask" was that "if people give opinions about what other people are thinking at a given moment and what I'm raising to you is that we should look with some caution about those kinds of opinions, and if we have available to us more direct evidence, perhaps of what a person is feeling or what a person did and why they did it, then we ought to look to that as well. So that's all I'm trying to get at."
 - People v. Salcido (2008) 44 Cal.4th 93, 153

Pre-instructing on the law unrelated to For Cause challenge

- Purpose of Voir Dire is not to preinstruct the jurors on the law
 - People v. Love (1960) 53 Cal.2d 843, 852: "The knowledge or ignorance of prospective jurors concerning questions of law is generally not a proper subject of inquiry on voir dire, for it is presumed that jurors will be adequately informed as to the applicable law by the instructions of the court.
- Examples:
 - Asking jurors their understanding of specific legal principles
 - Reading jurors jury instructions
 - Exception presumption of innocence / Reasonable doubt

VD Objections

Pre-instructing on the law unrelated to For Cause challenge

- Exception: primary purpose is to determine ability to follow law
 - People v. Love (1960) 53 Cal.2d 843, 852, fn. 1 "Inquiry into a juror's understanding of a principle of law may, however, be a prerequisite to inquiry into his willingness to apply that principle of law. To preclude such inquiry might under some circumstances constitute a refusal to permit the "reasonable examination of prospective jurors" to which the parties are entitled."

Pre-instructing on the law unrelated to For Cause challenge

- Exception: primary purpose is to determine ability to follow law
 - People v. Allen (1969) 275 Cal.App.2d 428, 441 "It has been held that questions concerning principles of law may be asked of prospective jurors to determine if such jurors would follow them."
 - People v. Johnson (1989) 47 Cal.3d 1194, 1224-1225 "[T]he court must permit questioning about legal doctrines that are material to the trial and controversial in the sense that they are likely to invoke strong feelings and resistance to their application."

VD Objections

Pre-instructing on the law unrelated to For Cause challenge

- Proper:
 - Reference legal principle (Single wit) and ask if jurors can follow
 - Ask if jurors will keep an open mind to types of defenses/liabilities
- Not Proper
 - Reading the elements of charges and ask what they think
 - Discussing specific defense evidence instructions
- Caution: what's good for the goose is good for the gander...
 - Give Defense some leeway, particularly w/ R.D. & Pres. of Inn.
- Object if Defense starts instructing on Defense instructions:
 - Self defense, Heat of passion, Mistake of fact, etc...
 - Especially if no follow up with asking if they can follow the law

Pre-instructing on the law unrelated to For Cause challenge

- Example
 - People v. Tilbury (Sep. 10, 2013, No. H036579) ___Cal.App.4th___ [2013 Cal. App. Unpub. LEXIS 6460, at *28-29 [judge rejected Defense questionnaire suggestions on self defense instructions for being ""a little bit too pointed" in attempting to "pre-condition jurors to a particular result" or "indoctrinate the jury" on the defense theory of the case]

VD Objections

Argumentative

- Similar to Preconditioning
- Any time an attorney starts explaining the law in a defense friendly perspective;
- You'll know it when you see it; sounds like closing argument
- Relatively rare during VD but it's a possible objection

Improper Voir Dire

- Unrelated to for cause challenges
 - © Catch-all for questions that don't fall into the prior categories
 - Examples:
 - Asking jurors how they would determine to vote death or judge credibility of witnesses
 - Any questions meant to assess juror decision making process that don't involve misconduct
 - Irrelevant demographic questions
 - Word of Caution/Advice
 - Give Defense some leeway many questions can be foundational
 - If Defense is putting jury to sleep, let him; Then use your time to distinguish yourself

VD Objections

Improper Voir Dire

- Ingratiating oneself with the jury
 - This applies throughout the trial; but often seen during VD
 - © Conduct who's primary/sole purpose is to get them to like you
 - Generic Examples:
 - Talking about other cases you've prosecuted/defended
 - Talking about family or life experiences you share with jurors
 - Using your unique personal experiences to set up a hypothetical
 - Anything where primary purpose is to charm them
 - Remember, what's good for the goose...

- Improper Voir Dire
 - Ingratiating oneself with the jury
 - Case Law
 - "Defendant now contends that the public defender should have used voir dire in order to ingratiate himself with the jury. This, of course, is not an acceptable basis for voir dire." (People v. Huffman (1977) Cal.App.3d 63, 74.)
 - People v. Castillo (2008) 168 Cal.App.4th 364, 386 prosecutor made improper statements that were ingratiating/preconditioning
 - Informed jury he only does rape/child abuse cases
 - Informed jury he cries when talking to witnesses
 - Discussed prior case where jury voted guilty
 - Told juror "you're on the same page as me"

VD Objections

- Tips for Avoiding Objections in Grey Areas:
 - & Know your judge and opposing counsel
 - Be able to articulate why your primary purpose is for cause
 - Broadcast the admissibility of your questions
 - E.G. "I want to see if anyone has any preconceived notions of ____ that will prevent them from being fair and impartial jurors"
 - This is how you justify exploring juror views on:
 - Consent
 - Views of DV / child molest victim behavior
 - Their roles as jurors
 - © Circumstantial Evidence
 - & E.G. "Follow the law general vs speeding" allegory

- What if I only have 15 minutes to Voir Dire a panel?
 - Negative Experiences with L.E. / Court system
 - Ability to follow law on stupid cases
 - Not All Evidence
 - CSI Expectations
 - The issue unique to your case

- What if I only have 15 minutes to Voir Dire a panel?
 - Negative Experiences with L.E. / Court system
 - Ask judge to cover; if judge doesn't, you need to
 - Be polite, empathetic, encouraging; apologetic (if necessary)
 - Suggested questions, "You or anyone close to you ever...":
 - had a negative experience with L.E.?
 - been accused of or convicted of crime?
 - been in a courtroom for any reason?
 - been in custody/jail/prison?
 - been contacted by L.E. For any reason?
 - Ask them if it will affect them in this case/officer testimony?
 - "Do you that has anything to do with this case?"
 - Explore if it will effect views on officer credibility
 - Consider asking juror thoughts on L.E. / Court system
 - Consider kicking anyone with a recent experience;

 - Negative Experiences with L.E. / Court system
 - Ability to follow law on stupid cases
 - © 647fs, 12500s/14601s, muni code violations, no injury 243(a)s
 - Need to discuss following the law even if its waste of time
 - Consider analogizing to Jay Walking or tresspasing

- What if I only have 15 minutes to Voir Dire a panel?
 - Negative Experiences with L.E. / Court system
 - Ability to follow law on stupid cases
 - Not All Evidence
 - "You may be instructed that neither side is required to produce all evidence or witnesses"
 - Confirm jurors will base verdict only on evidence presented
 - Will you speculate as to what else might be out there?
 - Will you speculate as to why certain witnesses weren't called?
 - Must confront Engineers/medical professionals with this
 - Discuss how law is different from their fields; confirm that's ok
 - Hypo: Battery in courtroom in front of 60 witnesses; only call 1

- What if I only have 15 minutes to Voir Dire a panel?
 - Negative Experiences with L.E. / Court system
 - Ability to follow law on stupid cases
 - Not All Evidence
 - CSI Expectations
 - Ask them if they think these shows accurately portray court
 - Call on jurors with prior experience as jurors or in L.E. to bolster your points
 - Ask if they expect DNA / Government Enhanced Imagery / Crime scene psychics in this "misdemeanor drug possession case"
 - I usually do this last; affords opportunity to end on a comical note

- What if I only have 15 minutes to Voir Dire a panel?
 - Negative Experiences with L.E. / Court system
 - Ability to follow law on stupid cases
 - Not All Evidence
 - CSI Expectations
 - The issue unique to your case:
 - E.G. Single witness testimony
 - E.G. Circumstantial evidence
 - © E.G. Sympathetic Defendant / unsympathetic victim
 - Whatever is the issue that may cause jurors to nullify or screw up the verdict due to preconceived notions / unrealistic expectations

Common Topics for Misdo/low level Cases

- Single Witness Testimony (Especially for DV/Sex cases)
 - Summarize the principle of CALCRIM 300
 - See if jurors will keep and open mind
 - Willing to vote guilty if they believe witness BRD?
 - See if anyone would never vote guilty in a case with 1 witness
 - If any are resistant, ask why there may be only 1 witness in a case that occurs in privacy of a home vs a crime at walmart
 - @ e.g. Do sex assaults occur in the public square or at home?
 - For sex assault consider tying in lack of Dna questions here
 - e.g Do you require DNA to convict?

Topics to Cover

Common Topics for Misdo/low level Cases

- Circumstantial Evidence
 - Need to make sure jurors are comfortable with it and how it works
 - All cases rely on it for corpus or corroboration
 - © Can use this to test to evaluate:
 - Bias against Circ. Evid.; damaging preconceived notions
 - (Secondary purpose) Jurors ability to follow you / think

First Step: Broadcast Admissibility

- Declare intention of uncovering preconceived notions of Circ. Evid.
- Ask if jurors have heard of it (50%-75% usually have)
- Ask if they hear it in the TV context where it is portrayed as weak:
 - "The People's case is purely circumstantial!!!"
- Ask for definition from a juror
- Re-broadcast admissibility & transition to the hidden pen exercise...

- Common Topics for Misdo/low level Cases
 - Circumstantial Evidence
 - Example Pen Behind the Podium
 - ⑤ Direct evidence → "I see the pen. It's in the Court room"
 - Drop the pen behind your podium, or the desk
 - Ask a juror if its in the courtroom
 - How do they know? They no longer have direct evidence.
 - Provide suggestions:
 - Did you hear a sound? Sound like the pen hit the ground?
 - Did you see a hole there? Is that even reasonable?
 - What if I testify the pen is not in the courtroom anymore? Does that change your mind? (If they waffle → KICK!)
 - End with: Are you comfortable with doing that in this case? Using circumstantial evidence to decide whether _____?

- Common Topics for Misdo/low level Cases
 - Circumstantial Evidence
 - Example Pen Behind the Podium
 - © Can also then be used to discuss intent:
 - Engage in purposeful conduct (like repeatedly tapping pen or dropping it)
 - "Am I doing this on accident?"
 - "what if told you this was involuntary? I can't control it. I am not intending to do this."
 - Ask how they know it's not on accident.
 - Then get them to say if they are willing to do that as jurors:
 - Use circ. Evidence to determine a person's intent

Common Topics for Misdo/low level Cases

- The "Making a Murder Effect"
 - Need to start addressing the "availability heuristic" of media coverage on the exoneration cases involving L.E. misconduct
 - DO THIS CAREFULLY Don't want to spoil your panel
 - Suggestions for now:
 - After discussing CSI Effect, poll jury on who follows criminal law "documentaries."
 - Do you think those are accurate depictions?
 - Do those stories have any bearing on this case?
 - Will those stories have any impact on they view evidence hear or make decisions on credibility / the case?
 - You are seeing if they have preconceived notions that impair their ability to be fair and impartial

Topics to Cover

Common Topics for Misdo/low level Cases

- Unsympathetic Victim
 - Desensitize jury using hyperbolic hypotheticals
 - What if you hate her? Should that matter as to whether he is guilty?
 - Victim unlikability doesn't mean he gets a pass

Sympathetic/young defendant who just made a mistake

- You MUST confront the fact head on
 - Do you think you would consider the fact that he's only 18?"
 - "Do you understand you can't do that? Can you follow that law?"
 - "Judge decides punishment and will take it into account"

Misd. Vehicular Manslaughters

- Must confirm that they can convict someone for a careless mistake
- Compare to cases where consequences of the crime decide if it's a felony or misd (e.g. DUI crash with injury vs without)

- Common Topics for Misdo/low level Cases
 - Domestic Violence / Uncooperative Victim
 - Always include unsympathetic questions in a DV case
 - Test pre-conceived notions
 - How is an alleged Dv victim supposed to act? Testify?
 - Do you expect her to act the way you did when your car was stolen?
 - Do you have any expectations on how she is supposed to act?
 - Does she have to cry for you to believe her?
 - Do all women handle trauma the same way?
 - Do you expect her to cooperate?
 - Do you understand why a DV vic may not be cooperative?
 - If I prove him guilty BRD, but she doesn't want him prosecuted, will that affect your vote?

- Common Topics for Misdo/low level Cases
 - Domestic Violence / Uncooperative Victim
 - Test willingness to listen to 1107 expert evidence
 - If the alleged victim engages in behavior that initially doesn't make sense, are you willing to listen to expert testimony on how D.V. victim may act before you make any final judgments?
 - Make sure jurors don't use unique experiences to judge your victim
 - "Do you understand you can't judge the alleged victim's credibility based on how you/your friend handle your prior abusive situation?"
 - A juror's prior D.V. history isn't a common/lay experience

Common Topics for Misdo/low level Cases

- Cases Lacking in Forensic Evidence
 - Must see if Jurors are "open to the possibility" of deciding guilt without forensic evidence.
 - No-Blow DUI's: Ever see someone drunk in public?
 - Bars / restaurants, Las Vegas, family reunions?
 - Need a BAC # to know that person was drunk?
 - Keep an open mind or will you automatically refuse to vote G?

No DNA Sex Assaults

- Any preconceived ideas on how DNA works? When you can/ can't find it?
- Given the nature of the charges, Do you require DNA to convict?"
- Would you automatically vote NG, regardless of the evidence, if there's no DNA?

Topics to Cover

Common Topics for Misdo/low level Cases

- "I need Evidence" aka testimony isn't evidence
 - Can inquire if jurors are comfortable with law that sworn testimony is evidence
 - © Can ask if willing to convict if the only evidence is testimony

Views on Witnesses with Drugs/Disabilities

- Obtain jurors view on drug use / mental disabilities
 - For drugs see if any family members have been negatively affected by drug abusing relatives – possibly kick them
 - "Can a person with a disability still be reliable?"
- Will jurors automatically disregard a person's testimony just because of drug use or disability?

Final Words of "Wisdom"

- Don't go overboard in trying to make jury care
 - Never lose perspective because credibility is your # 1 Asset
- Misdos & common felonies aren't crimes of the century
 - Some of your jurors have misdemeanors on their record
 - Many defendants are normal people who made poor decisions
 - Acting like he's Charles Manson will alienate your jurors!
- Do not overstate or overdramatize your case!

Final Words of "Wisdom"

- Practice new topics out loud
- Always prep your VD/identify issues in advance
 - But be ready to adapt based on the "flow" of V.D.
- Be yourself and do what works for your personality
- Have fun with it
- Learn from your mistakes
 - Identify what types of jurors hung your case and why
- # 1 Rule → When in doubt, go with your gut

IT STARTS IN VOIR DIRE

- ASK ABOUT FACTORS THEY CONSIDER (CALCRIM 226)
 - DISCUSS PAID EXPERTS
- PREP THEM FOR RECALCITRANT WITNESS
 - DISCUSS BIAS

WHO WILL YOU IMPEACH FIRST?

THE DIFFICULT WITNESS

EC 1235 EC 1236 EC 1237 EC 770

3

EVIDENCE CODE § 1235

EVIDENCE OF A STATEMENT MADE
BY A WITNESS IS NOT MADE
INADMISSIBLE BY THE HEARSAY
RULE IF THE STATEMENT IS INCONSISTENT WITH HIS
TESTIMONY AT THE HEARING AND IS OFFERED IN COMPLIANCE WITH
EVIDENCE CODE § 770.

EVIDENCE CODE § 1235

A PRIOR STATEMENT OF A WITNESS CAN BE INTRODUCED TO IMPEACH A WITNESS AND CAN BE OFFERED NOT ONLY FOR IMPEACHMENT, BUT ALSO FOR THE TRUTH OF THE MATTER ASSERTED UNDER EVIDENCE CODE § 1235.

PEOPLE V. MONTIEL (1993) 5 CAL.4TH 877 [ADMISSIBLE FOR THE TRUTH].

5

EC 1235 PRIOR INCONSISTENT

- 1. MUST LOCK IN TO CURRENT VERSION
- 2. THEN CONFIRM PRIOR STATEMENT MADE
- 3. CONTRONT WITH ACTUAL PRIOR STATEMENT.....PRECISE!!!
- 4. ASK WITNESS TO ADMIT TO MAKING STATEMENT
- 5. DO NOT REFRESH RECOLLECTION TOO EARLY

EVIDENCE CODE § 770

Unless the interest of justice otherwise require, extrinsic evidence of a statement made by a witness that is inconsistent with any part of his testimony at the hearing shall be excluded unless:

- (A) THE WITNESS WAS SO EXAMINED
 WHILE TESTIFYING AS TO GIVE HIM AN OPPORTUNITY TO EXPLAIN OR TO DENY THE STATEMENT; OR
- (B) THE WITNESS HAS NOT BEEN
 EXCUSED FROM GIVING FURTHER
 TESTIMONY IN THE ACTION.

7

EVIDENCE CODE § 770 REQUIRES EXCLUSION OF THE STATEMENT UNLESS EITHER THE WITNESS WAS GIVEN THE OPPORTUNITY WHILE TESTIFYING TO EXPLAIN OR DENY THE STATEMENT OR THE WITNESS HAS NOT BEEN EXCUSED FROM GIVING FURTHER TESTIMONY IN THE ACTION.

PEOPLE V. BUTTES
(1990) 223 CAL.APP.3D 1631 8

REMEMBER THE THREE "C"s

- 1. COMMIT: GET WITNESS TO COMMIT TO CURRENT VERSION AND THAT IS THE TESTIMONY TODAY
- 2. CONFIRM: GET WITNESS TO ACKNOWLEGE HE/SHE MADE PRIOR STATEMENT, CLOSER IN TIME, NOT LYING THEN
- 3. CONFRONT: DIRECTLY QUOTE THE PRIOR INCONSISTENT STATEMENT AND GIVE THEM CHANCE TO EXPLAIN/DENY

WRONG QUESTIONS

- DO YOU RECALL WHAT YOU TOLD OFFICER SMITH?
- •DO YOU RECALL TELLING SMITH THE DEFENDANT HAD A GUN?

I DON'T RECALL IS NOT INCONSISTENT WITH PRIOR STATEMENT...IT AIN'T COMING IN

RECANTING WITNESS

PEOPLE V. GREEN (1971) 3 CAL.3D 981.

• THE COURT HELD IN GREEN, IT
WOULD BE UNWILLING TO PERMIT A
WITNESS TO BECOME A TURNCOAT

"GREENING" YOUR WITNESS

("I DON'T RECALL")

- GET THEM TALKING, EVEN A SMALL BIT
- LOCK THEM INTO CURRENT VERSION
- GET THEM TO ADMIT BEING INTERVIEWED SHORTLY AFTER CRIME
- GET TO ADMIT THEY DON'T WANT TO TESTIFY
- DISCUSS FEAR/RELUCTANCE/ETC.
- DON'T SAY DO YOU RECALL TELLING....
- CONFRONT W/ PRIOR STATEMENT + OPPORTUNITY TO EXPLAIN OR DENY

DO NOT EXCUSE WITNESS!!

I DON'T REMEMBER

- HAVE THEM ADMIT TO MAKING SOME PRIOR STATEMENT
- ASK SPECIFICS, THEN REFRESH
- ESTABLISH BIAS (RELATIONSHIP TO DEF.)
- ASK COURT TO ADMONISH
- ASK COURT TO MAKE FINDING FEIGNED LACK OF MEMORY

IMPLIED DENIAL (GREEN)

IF WITNESS IS EVASIVE/CLAIMED LACK OF MEMORY.....

- A)RELATIONSHIP WITH DEFENDANT
- B)FEAR
- c)RELUCTANCE
- D)LOSS OF MEMORY IS IMPLAUSIBLE
- E)GET WITNESS TO TALK ABOUT THINGS
 THAT ARE HELPFUL TO DEFENDANT

EMPHASIZE THE FOLLOWING

- (1) THE IMPORTANCE OF GIVING POLICE OFFICERS ACCURATE INFORMATION;
- (2) THE WITNESS'S DESIRE TO GIVE
 THE POLICE ACCURATE
 INFORMATION TO MAKE SURE THE RIGHT PERSON IS ARRESTED; AND
- (3) THAT THE WITNESS DID IN FACT GIVE THE POLICE ACCURATE INFORMATION

PAST RECOLLECTION RECORDED (EC § 1237)

- Use when refreshing doesn't work
- MUST ESTABLISH PRIOR STATEMENT MADE WHILE FRESH IN WITNESS'S MIND NEAR TIME OF EVENT
- WITNESS MADE A STATEMENT AND PRIOR STATEMENT WAS TRUTHFUL AND ACCURATE.
- IF WITNESS STILL CANNOT REMEMBER,
 STATEMENT IS READ INTO RECORD.... NOT WRITING ITSELF UNLESS OFFERED BY ADVERSE PARTY

May 2019 Presentation

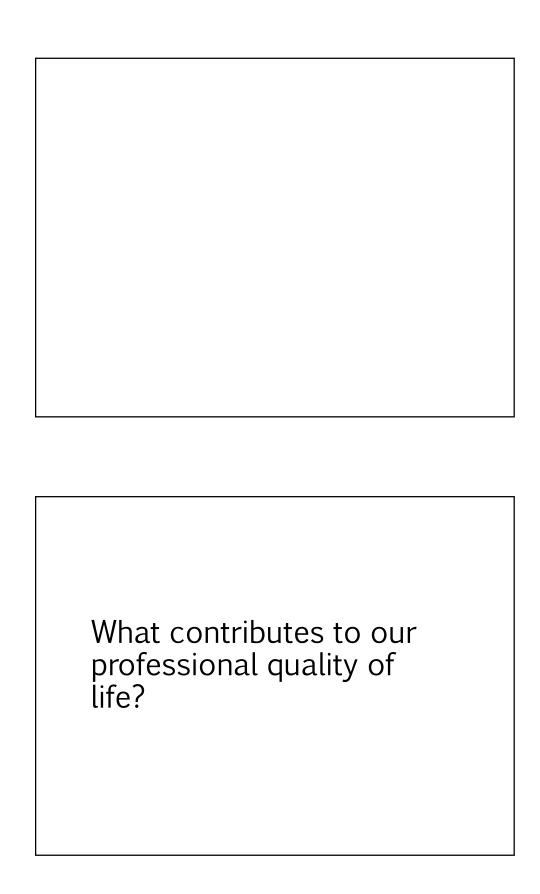

WHAT ARE YOU EXPECTING?

- •Learn about Depression?
- •Learn about Compassion Fatigue?
- Competency credit
- Facts.....facts.....and statistics

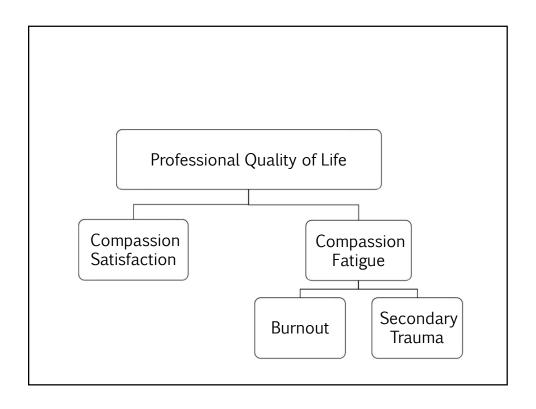

WHAT DID YOU GET OUT OF THIS HOUR?

Complex Relationships PERSONAL EXPERIENCE WORK ENVIRONMENT

Compassion Satisfaction The positive aspects of helping "The good stuff." Compassion Fatigue The negative aspects of helping "The bad stuff." Burnout Inefficient Overwhelmed to the positive aspects of helping to the stuff.

Secondary Traumatic Stress

AKA: Vicarious Trauma

SECONDARY TRAUMA

"Vicarious Trauma"

- Unique to professionals repeatedly exposed to the trauma of others
 - -Law enforcement, firefighters, nurses, social workers, judges, criminal lawyers......
- Symptoms mimic PTSD
- Cumulative effect of repeated exposure to trauma
- Erode sense of self, damage our outlook on life, harm our overall well-being

RESEARCH ON STS AND ATTORNEYS

- STS for family and criminal court attorneys were higher than for mental health professionals (Levin & Greisberg, 2003)
- Study of public defenders found that 34% met criteria for STS and 75% met criteria for functional impairment (i.e., disruption in personal life, family life, etc.) (Levin et al, 2011)

Prosecutors are being increasingly criticized

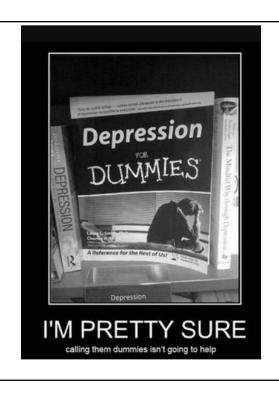

We bring our life experience into each case.

NOT RELEVANT TO YOU?

Why do WE need to talk about it?

- · ABA, Hazelden Betty Ford Foundation
- First national study on licensed and employed attorney substance abuse and mental health concerns. (February 2016)
- Compared with other professionals (ie; doctors.)
- Highest Risk
 - First 10 years of practice
- Attorneys experience mental health distress at a higher rate than other professional populations
 - 28% struggle with depression
 - 46% reported concerns with depression at some point in legal careers
- Most common barriers for attorneys to seek help
 - Fear of others finding out
 - Confidentiality

Expectations of prosecutors prevent disclosure

"Emotional vulnerability is viewed as a weakness and a problem."

"Perfection is expected, as any mistake or oversight can dramatically change the outcome of a case or a trial."

"This expectation leaves little room for the very normal human experience and error."

POLITICS

The Untold Story of Susan Hawk

She had always dreamed about being Dallas County district attorney. But as her career took off, her personal life was falling apart—divorce, pain pills, thoughts of suicide. After two months of treatment, she says she's ready once again to serve. Is she up to the job?

BY JAMIE THOMPSON | PUBLISHED IN D MAGAZINE NOVEMBER 2015

- 1995-2002: Prosecutor. Deputy Chief of Child Abuse Division
- 2003-2013: Judge
 - "Her personal life [was] in tumult while her career took off."
 - Started taking pain pills for a running injury
- 2013: Resigned as judge to run for district attorney
 - "She says she started taking more and more pain pills, spiraling into a de depression. She had suffered bouts of sadness her whole life, as far back seventh grade. But for the first time, she began to wonder whether she w to live."
- 2013: Wandering and incoherent at Whole Foods
- 2013: Hawk secretly went to rehab for prescription drug abuse during campaign for DA
- January 2015: Sworn in district attorney
- June 2015: Hawk fired two members of management. Describe Hawk as "wild-eyed, paranoid and delusional."
 - Discussions behind closed doors haunted her.
- July 2015: Hawk on "summer break" (aka: psychiatric hospital severe depression)
- October 2015: Hawk returns to work followed by calls for resignation

The thing that jumped out at me, with little or no mention, is that while the hospitalization, addiction, and all-around erratic behavior was taking place:

SHE WAS THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY RESPONSIBLE FOR CHARGING AND ULTIMATELY PUTTING PEOPLE IN JAIL!

Do ya think those people in jail, or otherwise, have a reasonable case to make that, oh, they might not have been handled properly?

I have sympathy for those that have issues of this type, but there are many more people than her and the DA office staff negatively impacted.

I get what you're saying but on a day-to-day basis I'd be much more worried about this from a line ADA or especially a bureau chief/executive ADA who is probably going to have much more of an effect on any given defendant.
Susan Hawk Talks about Depression

- January 2016: Petition for Removal Dismissed
 - Mental Illness v. Poor Performance
 - Hawk's attorneys called it a, "stigmatizing and improper at based on the notion hat individuals suffering from depress disorder cannot meaningfully contribute to our society."
 - "If suffering from depression is enough to qualify a license attorney from being a district attorney, then roughly a qua of the State Bar is disqualified."
- May 2016: Hawk hospitalized for second time for severe depression. Hawk did not return to work after.
- June 2016: Hawk sought treatment for a third time.
- August 2016: Hawk returned to work.
- September 2016: Hawk resigned

Governor Greg Abbott Office of the Governor P.O. Box 12428 Austin, Texas 78711-2428

Dear Governor Abbott,

It is with a heavy heart that I must tender my resignation as Dallas County District Attorney. It's been an honor and a privilege to serve this office and the citizens of Dallas County, but my health needs my undivided attention.

More than my words could express, I appreciate the grace I've been shown as I've tried to balance my health and my duties. This has been a very difficult process for me as I've dedicated my life to serving our criminal justice system. I believe our office is making a difference and I want to continue that good work. But last fall upon returning from treatment, I made a commitment to step away from the office if I felt I could no longer do my job, and unfortunately I've reached that point as my health needs my full attention in the coming months.

While my personal health issues have received much attention over the past months, it's my hope that those issues do not overshadow the great work of our office over the past 20 months, so I would like to give you some of our highlights:

DISABILITY DEC. 14, 2016

Though I have suffered severe depression in the past, these days, my episodes tend to be milder and less frequent. Some days, I feel fine. But I might soon begin feeling melancholy — yet still able to laugh, think clearly, sleep at night and enjoy my life. Then one morning, for no discernible reason, I wake up mired in mud, my body now freight to be pushed through daily routines. The rhythm of life is suddenly ground down almost to nothing. I feel somehow both numb and raw, skin thin, laid open. Everything that matters is now far-off in the distance. Other people seem remote, existing in some parallel universe.

"You are here for a reason, whether you believe you were called to this work or just find it exciting and interesting. We aren't going to change the nature of it, but we do have control over who we are in the midst of it. Don't run from your feelings. Pushing them underground doesn't eliminate them, it just buries them. Much healthier is to recognize in the moment that you're sad, horrified or overwhelmed by whatever is going on around you, and you can then focus on breathing and staying present. Find one or two safe people at work to debrief with, and be available for them when they need to talk as well. Using the suggestions above, create a plan for yourself to manage stress, take care of yourself, and cultivate hope and meaning."

Surviving Wheeler – A Live Demonstration

Cindy De Silva

Deputy District Attorney
San Joaquin County

WHEELER/BATSON: A SUMMARY

By Cindy De Silva Deputy District Attorney County of San Joaquin June 2019

1

What Is a "Wheeler/Batson" Objection Based On?

- "Group Bias": The presumption "that certain jurors are biased merely because they are members of an identifiable group distinguished on racial, religious, ethnic, or similar grounds[.]"
 - (People v. Wheeler (1978) 22 Cal.3d 258, 276.)

The Tripod and the Three-Part Inquiry

- People v. Wheeler (1978) 22 Cal.3d 258
- Batson v. Kentucky (1986)476 U.S. 79
- Johnson v. California (2005) 545 U.S. 162
- Prong 1: Opponent must make prima facie case that totality of circumstances raises an inference of discriminatory kick
- Prong 2: Burden shifts to proponent to give permissible reasons
- Prong 3: Trial Court decides whether opponent has proven discriminatory purpose

3

Prong 1: What Makes a Good "Prima Facie Case"?

- People v. Scott (2015) 61 Cal. 4th 363, 384, lists the following "particularly relevant" evidence:
- That the "party has struck most or all of the members of the identified group";
- The "party has used a disproportionate number of strikes against the group";
- The party has not engaged in significant questioning of those jurors;
- D is a member of the identified group; and
- V is a member of the group of the majority of the remaining jurors

Prong 1: Cognizable Groups

- CCP 231.5/GC 11135: Race, color, ancestry, national origin, ethnic group identification, religion, sex, sexual orientation, medical condition, age, marital status, mental disability, physical disability, genetic information (GC 12926)
- People Newly Residing in the community (Adams v. Superior Court (1974) 12 Cal.3d 55, 60)
- Not "People of Color" as a combined group (People v. Davis (2009) 46 Cal.4th 539, People v. Neuman (2009) 176 Cal.App.4th 571)

5

Prong 2: Reasons, Comparative Analysis, Statistics, Etc.

- Miller-El v. Dretke (2005) 545 U.S. 231:
 - Statistics
 - Disparate Questioning
 - Comparative Analysis
 - Notations on Post-Its
 - Past DA's Office Practice
 - Cumulative Weight of All-of-the-Above

Prong 3: "Sincere and Reasoned Attempt"

- People v. Hall (1983) 35 Cal.3d 161, 167
- Third Prong is a credibility determination
- It "demands of the trial judge a sincere and reasoned attempt to evaluate" the truthfulness of the proffered raceneutral reason (id. at 167)

7

Prong 3: "Demeanor" Reasons and How They Figure Into Credibility

- When otherwise belied by the record and demeanor not in record, we tend to lose. (See, e.g., People v. Silva (2001) 25 Cal.4th 345; Snyder v. Louisiana (2008) 552 U.S. 472
- When demeanor reason vague & non-sensical, we lose. (See, e.g., People v. Allen (2004) 115 Cal.App.4th 542, 546)
- When demeanor not in record or not seen by judge but nothing belies us, we can win. (See, e.g., People v. Reynoso (2003) 31 Cal.4th 903; Thaler v. Haynes (2010) 559 U.S. 43)

Mechanics of the Motion

- Consider Limine/Trial Brief (see materials)
- Best Practice: "Objection, may we approach?"
- Hearing: outside jury's presence
- Either P or D can make motion (Georgia v. McCollum (1992) 505 U.S. 42)
- D need not share same classification as kicked juror(s) (Powers v. Ohio (1991) 499 U.S. 400)
- Reasons: NEVER ex parte! (See United States v. Thompson (9th Cir. 1987) 827 F.2d 1254; Davis v. Ayala (2015) 576 U.S. ___, 135 S.Ct. 2187)

9

Remedies at Voir Dire Level

- Traditional Wheeler: dismiss entire panel and start over fresh
- Batson: simply remanded for TC to conduct 3-Part inquiry, but specifically left open the possibility of:
 - Traditional Wheeler
 - Re-seating offended juror

- People v. Willis (2002) 27 Cal.4th 811: If opponent agrees...
 - Monetary sanctions
 - Re-seat offended juror (dicta)
 - Give opponent extra peremptories (dicta)

Potential State Bar Reporting

At Trial

- If monetarily sanctioned $1000 or more:
- BP 6086.7(a)(3): TC must report you
- BP 6068(o)(3): You must report yourself within 30 days

After Losing on Appeal

- If judgment reversed "in whole or in part" b/c of attorney misconduct:
- BP 6086.7(a)(2): TC must report you
- BP 6068(o)(7): You must report yourself within 30 days

11

But...is Wheeler/Batson violation "attorney misconduct"???

- Retired SFDDA Jerry Coleman thinks so!
- But...did a recent case in a different Wheeler context foreshadow something?
- "We use the term 'prosecutorial error' rather than the at times misleading term 'prosecutorial misconduct,' because we are not concerned with the prosecutor's culpable mental state, but with the lawfulness of the reasons given for exercising the peremptory challenges." (People v. Douglas (2018) 22 Cal.App.5th 1162, n.6 at 1176)
- Be on the safe side: report self until we know for sure.

Thank you!
