

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

The District Attorney of Alameda County Presents a Weekly Video Survey of Criminal Law Approved for Credit Toward California Criminal Law Specialization: #172--
The Alameda County District Attorney's Office is a State Bar of California Approved MCLE Provider.

Week Of	Topic	Guests	30 min
Oct. 5, 2020	Social Media Evidence, Part I	DDA Mark Jackson	General

This week's P&A is Part I of a two-part series on the Use of Social Media Evidence in Court.

Part I covers the following topics:

- An Explanation of Social Media Evidence
- The Sources of Social Media Evidence
- The Requirements for Obtaining Social Media Evidence

Next Week's P&A, Part II, will discuss how to get Social Media Evidence Admitted in Court

Suggestions for future shows, ideas on how to improve P&A, and other comments or criticisms should be directed to Mary Pat Dooley at (510) 272-6249, marypat.dooley@acgov.org. Technical questions should be addressed to Gilbert Leung at (510) 272-6327. Participatory students: MCLE Evaluation sheets are available on location and certificates of attendance are constructively maintained in your possession in the Ala. Co. Dist.Atty computer banks. If you wished to be added to or removed from the P&A mailing list, contact Mishel Jackson; mishel.jackson@acgov.org

