Presenter Bio:

Angela Brunson has been a Los Angeles Deputy District Attorney since October 1997. She has been assigned to the Cyber Crime Division since May 2016 where she exclusively prosecutes child sexual abuse material offenders and online child predators. She has completed both the Level 1 and Level 2 Digital Evidence for Prosecutors training programs provided by the United States Secret Service at the National Computer Forensics Institute. She has provided training to multiple local, state, and federal agencies: LASD; LAPD; LADA's Office: Filing DA College, Branch & Area locations, Sexually Violent Predator Unit; LA County Probation Department, California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Homeland Security Investigations, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. She has attended and presented training at multiple national Internet Crimes Against Children Conferences. She also provides Internet Safety & Awareness presentations to students, parents, school administrators, and various community organizations throughout Los Angeles County as well as through her Instagram account: CyberLifeAwareness. Outside of the office, she is a Crossfit Coach, a marathon runner, a motorcycle racer, a volunteer coach for Mock Trial and Moot Court students, as well as the proud owner of two ridiculously silly Pygmy goats.
