*** EXTERNAL MESSAGE *****

Ms. Leonida,

Good morning. Today, between meetings, I received a letter dated January 18, 2022, regarding a prior CPRA sent to us by your firm related to the Criminal Justice Act and other areas. I must apologize and express our intent of providing as much of the material as feasible. Our office is very interested in providing transparency related to operations. I did receive a CPRA from your firm in December of 2021. I began compiling some of the requested information, which is expansive, but have been sidetracked by other very pressing issues. I am unaware of any conversation between our front desk and your firm related to this request and apologize for any untoward conversation in that regard. I will continue to gather what information we have available and provide it hopefully with the next ten business days. Again, I am embarrassed to have not communicated our intent and efforts to this point. Please feel free to call me directly at 805-794-9799 to discuss.

Best regards,

Eric J. Dobroth
