Additional time is needed to determine whether this office possesses disclosable responsive records. There is a need to search for and collect records from a division separate from the one processing this request, as well as determine what computer programming is required to extract and compile the requested electronic data. Pursuant to Government Code, section 6253, subdivisions (c)(1) and (4), this office is extending the response time by 14 days. We will notify you of our determination on or before March 4, 2021.

Your patience is appreciated as we continue to process your request.

Sincerely,
