Attorney for Plaintiff

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, Plaintiff, v. _____, Defendant.	Case No.: PROTECTIVE ORDER RELATING TO LAW ENFORCEMENT BODY-WORN CAMERA RECORDINGS

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

The following Protective Order shall govern the disclosure of all audio and/or visual digital evidence relating to law enforcement body-worn camera recordings ("protected recordings") produced by the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office in the above-referenced case in compliance with Penal Code section 1054.1:

1. Under no circumstances shall the protected recordings, or the information contained therein, be copied, retained, compiled, stored, used as a database, or disseminated, in any form, by the defendant or the defendant's attorney of record, except for the purposes of this specific criminal case in accordance with this Protective Order or by further order of the court.

2. Use of the protected recordings, or the information contained therein, is limited to this specific criminal case and, in particular, the protected recordings, or any products derived therefrom, shall not be utilized by the defendant, the defendant's attorney of record, or any other individual, in the defense of any other criminal proceeding or in the litigation of any civil proceeding.

3. Use of the protected recordings, or the information contained therein, is limited to authorized persons working for the defense on this specific criminal case.

4. The defendant's attorney of record shall be prohibited from disclosing to the defendant, members of the defendant's family, or any other individual, the address or telephone number of a victim or witness whose name is disclosed to the attorney pursuant to a protected recording, unless specifically permitted to do so by the court after a hearing and a showing of good cause in this specific criminal case. (Pen. Code, § 1054.2, subd. (a) (1).)

5. The defendant's attorney of record shall advise those individuals to whom disclosure is made in accordance with this Protective Order of the contents of this Protective Order.

6. If the protected recordings or copies thereof, or the information contained therein, is included in any court documents, those documents must be submitted under seal.

7. This Protective Order shall be in effect until further order of this Court.
